

3 Contemporary Artists

William Kentridge:

I like his piece where he records him drawing with charcoal and to erases to show a looped animation. Mostly to show how narrative is an important to videos.

Sarah Morris:

I like how she focuses on architecture from Beijing to Las Vegas to show in 3D to 4D of these buildings. I like this mostly because of the clean design and focus on the buildings themselves no flashy parts.

Bill Viola:

I like because of it just videos of people doing normal tasks to envelop with image and sound in a spiritual way.
